SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (A)

Sunday 30th July, 2023

1 Kings 3.5,7–12 Psalm 118 Romans 8.28–30 Matthew 13.44–52

In this Gospel' passage, Jesus distinguishes what he says to the crowds and what he says to his disciples – notably he gives some explanations only to his disciples. Part of his instruction to them is to prepare them to be the community of faith that continues his work; offered without explanation to fulfil the words of Isaiah 'you will listen and listen again but not understand', The first two parables today are of great significance: the person who finds the hidden treasure, or the pearl of great value.

The focus of these two stories is the joy of discovering the pearl and the renunciation of everything to acquire it – such is the reality of becoming the disciples – it is marked by joy and renunciation. This Gospel pairs with the story of the granting of wisdom to Solomon; the king recognises that what might be thought of as the priorities of kingship – long life, riches, or military success – are not important compared to true wisdom. Such wisdom is the understanding with which Jesus instructs his disciples and such are the things that the disciple of the kingdom brings out from his storeroom.

Keep yourself safe and well, Fr. Emile

Being the Change: Student leadership conference

An inspiring and joyful day took place recently at De La Salle School, when 60 student leaders from 16 of our Catholic schools came together for a conference on leadership. They heard from Bishop Alan and others, engaged in discussions and challenges and focused on the practical responsibility of care for our common home. "Their ideas and feedback demonstrated thought, creativity and vision proving that they have insight into the problems and a range of solutions that were both practical and feasible," said Siân Thomas-Cullinan, Director of Caritas Diocese of Brentwood. The young leaders left the conference equipped with practical ideas to make a difference locally, nationally and globally. "The day was necessary, joyful, hopeful and motivating," said Siân.
