SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (B) Sunday 14th January, 2024

1 Samuel 3.3–10, 19 Psalm 39 1 Corinthians 6.13–15, 17–20 John 1.35–42

We have an account at the beginning of Jesus' ministry. The encounters he has with people: opportunities for teaching, evangelisation and conversion. Nicodemus, the woman at the well, the man born blind, Martha and Mary. Having been directed by John the Baptist to him, Andrew and another disciple come to Jesus. His first words to them: 'What do you want?', that is, in fact, the most significant of questions addressed by Him who can offer the only meaningful answer.

In the end of course the question is not really 'What do you want?' but 'Who?', the answer is the one who has been designated 'the Lamb of God' by John the Baptist. That title, a powerful interpretation of Jesus underpins key details in John's Passion account. Jesus' further invitation to the two disciples is also significant: 'Come and see' an invitation to come and spend time – which they do. The result of that outreach draws in Peter.

The encounter with Jesus changes people, makes them into disciples and evangelisers, the model whereby the Lord encounters people who are brought to him, then spend time with him and so make the transition, like Simon, to become followers.

Keep yourself safe and well, Fr. Emile

"You shall love the Lord your God ...and your neighbour as yourself..."

From 22nd to 26th January we are celebrating Christian Unity Week as part of Ongar Churches Together. The theme, this year, of the parable of the Good Samaritan is one of the best known passages of Scripture, yet one that never seems to lose its power to challenge indifference to suffering and to inspire solidarity. It is a story about crossing boundaries that calls our attention to the bonds that unite the whole human family. There will be a service each day next week at 12pm midday at each church in Ongar.
