FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (B) Sunday 7th July, 2024

Mark 6:1-6 Ezekiel 2:2-5 Psalm 122 (123) 2 Corinthians 12:7-10

Mark's gospel reading gives us an account of the visit of Jesus to his 'home town', which we know to be Nazareth. Just as he has already done in Capernaum, here too he teaches in the synagogue on the Sabbath. But the reaction of the townspeople is not positive. How can this local man be gifted with so many fine qualities? They are determined to find fault with his wisdom and with his actions. They go on to speak of his family. They know his mother, and they know his relations. His humble origins rule out anything special. 'And they would not accept him.' The sense of the Greek word used here suggests they were determined to find excuses for not accepting him. John's gospel will express this with the momentous words: 'He came to his own, and his own would not accept him.' (John 1:11)

This passage is important in the unfolding drama of the gospel. It was not only the religious and political leaders who were against Jesus. Jesus quotes what seems to be a common proverb in antiquity: 'A prophet is only despised in his own home.' The passage ends with the strange remark that 'he could work no miracles there'. The healing work of Jesus is not forced on those who do not wish to receive it, and who are not open to the new deeds the Lord is doing.

The text from the prophet Ezekiel confirms that, like Jesus, the ancient prophets of Israel often experienced rejection. St Paul, facing 'a thorn in the flesh', hears those comforting words of the Lord: 'My grace is enough for you.' We too should trust the goodness of God in our efforts to witness to Christ. What does the rejection of Jesus in Nazareth teach us? What do you think motivated the attitude of Jesus' compatriots? Let us pray for those who face opposition because they live according to the values of the gospel.

Fr. Adrian Graffy

Please note Fr. Emile is currently away on leave returning 7th July.
Let us welcome Fr. Abiodun Clement, who will be covering the 6/7 July weekend Masses.

Going Forth Mass The Going Forth Mass for our First Holy Communicants, Charlie and Elliott, will take place on Sunday 14th July at St. Margaret's. A big thank you to our catechist, Chloe Rowles, for guiding the children on this year's First Holy Communion Programme.

Summer Tabletop Sale Thank you for everyone who helped or came along to support the Tabletop Sale on 29th June. All the tables were sold and we were blessed with a lovely sunny day. We had two parish tables this year, one with repository items and one with various donated items and plants. The WI cake stall did well and this year Neighbourhood Watch took a table with information, advice and free personal safety items. The ladies in the kitchen worked hard and the strawberries and cream were lovely. It was not as busy as we hoped and there were few children, but we made over £500 for the parish; so well worth doing. There was a lovely atmosphere in the hall, and it was a nice social event. B.Wrobel

Doddy Drop In The next Doddy Drop In will be on Tuesday 9th July 2-4pm at St Margaret's Hall, Doddingtonhurst. All welcome to join for a cuppa, cake, games, crafts and a natter!

100 Club The lucky winner of £102 for the 100 Club Draw for June was No. 93, Mrs Ursula Murphy so our congratulations to you! Please contact Bernie/Anne R to apply.

Collection Notice: Please be aware that recently we have had some instances of Scottish notes being rejected by the Post Office when paying in the weekly collection to the parish bank account.

YOUR PARISH GARDEN NEEDS YOU!

There will be a gardening working party to tackle the overgrown areas of the garden at St Margaret's on the evening of Friday 12th July from 6pm onwards. Please come even if you can only spare half an hour as many hands really do make light work. You will need to bring your own tools, gloves, extension leads and bags for any non compostable debris. Refreshments will be provided.

THANK YOU from St Margaret's Hall Committee.

Second Collection - Sunday 14th July - Sea Sunday On Sea Sunday, which falls on 14th July this year, let us pray for seafarers, fishers, and the work of Stella Maris. When seafarers and fishers arrive in a foreign port, they are strangers, often thousands of miles from home. Stella Maris' chaplains and volunteer ship visitors welcome them, listen to their concerns, and help provide what they need. Stella Maris' chaplains and volunteer ship visitors answer Jesus' call to give hospitality to the stranger. To find out more about Sea Sunday, please visit: <https://stellamaris.org.uk/seasunday/> To donate to Stella Maris, please go to: <https://stellamaris.org.uk/donate/> or there will be a second collection this weekend at all the masses.
