Second Sunday in Ordinary Time (C) Peace Day Sunday 19th January, 2025

62.1–5 Psalm 96 I Corinthians 12.4–11 John 2.1–11

From the earthly to the heavenly, The Lord gave 'signs' to move people so that 'they may believe'. John's narrative is pulling the reader down from the surface level of life to something deeper and effecting transformation on the way.

The story begins 'on the third day'. Already the reader is alerted to the third day of the Resurrection, when the hour of the Lord had come with the abundance of new life emerging out of the emptiness and dryness of the tomb. 'They have no wine', the Mother of the Lord says. The people are running on empty, but unaware they are thirsting, that the empty jars of their lives are lying un-fulfilled and un-satisfied. It is a satiation, not just a fulness, the Lord brings. There is an intimacy and closeness to the Lord's presence at this deeply human event.

The wedding nods to the marriage feast of the Lamb, to that spring of living water welling up to eternal life, to the fulness of life the Lord offers. He is at one with them as he is at one with his heavenly Father. This earthly life is already fermented with the divine life. 'Here is a vintage richer for the keeping.' His Mother appears again at the very end of the Gospel at the foot of the Cross thus bookending the Lord's entire ministry.

She invites us to read the whole narrative through the prism of her discipleship and faith 'so that we may believe' and become as she is 'a crown of beauty' and a 'royal diadem' in the hand of our God.

Keep safe and well, Fr Emile Nkumu

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time (C) Sunday 19th January, 2025

Communion Antiphon:

‘You have prepared a table before me,
and how precious is the chalice that quenches my thirst.’

Forthcoming Presbytery Building Repair Works will commence from Monday 20th January until Friday 14th March. The Presbytery will not be accessible at this time. The Church and the Sacristy will be accessible for Mass when scheduled. Availability of the car park will be restricted during this period - extra parking is available at Two Brewers and other nearby areas in Ongar. There will be no toilet available at the church during this period. Please email ongar@brcdt.org with any queries as usual.

Baptism We welcome to the family of the Church, Rosie Langbridge, who will be baptised in our parish this weekend. Remember their parents who are the “first and best teachers of their children in the ways of the Faith”.

Lenten Lunches: Please save the following dates in your diaries for the forthcoming Lenten Lunches on Saturday 8th, 15th and 22nd March 2025.

Week of Christian Unity 2025 - Ongar Churches Together

“Do you believe this?”

From 20th to 24th January we are celebrating Christian Unity Week as part of Ongar Churches Together. As we celebrate 1,700 years since the Council of Nicaea, the worship service has at its heart, the Nicene Creed. Reflecting this, the scripture readings for this year focus on belief. There will be a service each day next week at 12pm midday at each church in Ongar.

Monday 20th Jan - Greensted Church

Tuesday 21st Jan - St Martin’s Church

Weds 22nd Jan - United Reform Church

Thursday 23rd Jan - St. Helen’s Catholic Church

Friday 24th Jan - St. James’ Church

There will be no 9am weekday mass at St Helens on Thursday 23rd January.
