THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD (C) Feast Sunday 12th January, 2025

Luke 3:15-16,21-22 Isaiah 42:1-4,6-7 Psalm 28 (29) Acts 10:34-38

“A voice came from heaven” that lets me know: “Pay attention to this important message. The voice of God’s prophets and apostles speaking to us about the importance of an encounter. Isaiah cries out: “Prepare the way of the Lord!” Israel, “here is your God!” Israel and the world needed to hear this voice because they did not expect to see God arrive as an infant lying in a manger.

At the Jordan that day the people were indeed “filled with expectation” But what mattered was that they met Jesus for the first time. What mattered was that He was baptized, He, who cleanses us. That encounter is the voice from heaven speaking to us so that we do not miss it, saying that “because of his mercy, he saved us through the bath of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, whom he richly poured out on us through Jesus Christ our saviour.”

At our baptism becoming beloved sons and daughters of God is justified by grace with a right to inherit eternal life. Christ’s descent into the water that day was completed by his descent into death for us; His immersion in water was completed by his immersion into the depth of human sin and suffering.

Let us to return to what matters: to fall in love with Jesus first encounter of our own baptism in a new light. It was in baptism that we were made a member of the family who belongs here at the table, at the Eucharistic altar where Christ gives Himself to us. Christ has made us his own. In confession, in communion, all of us have entered into a deeper relationship that throws new and perhaps unexpected light on the grace of that first encounter in the baptismal font.

The voice of God speaks to us today so that we do not miss it. This is what important: who Jesus is, and who we are because of Him and in Him.

Keep safe and well, Fr Emile Nkumu
